

Keck Neurosciences Major

Neurophilosophy Sequence

Faculty Advisers: Professor Brian Keeley (Pitzer), Dion Scott-Kakures (Scripps)

Students should take four courses from the following list:

- Phil 30: Knowledge, Mind & Existence, (Keeley (PZ) or Kung (PO))
- Phil 80: Philosophy of Mind, (Kung (PO))
- Phil 103: Philosophy of Science: Historical Survey, (Perini (PO) or Keeley (PZ))
- Phil 104: Philosophy of Science: Topical Survey, (Perini (PO) or Keeley (PZ))
- Phil 135: Philosophy of Mind, (Kind (CMC))
- Phil 146: Temptation and the Will, (Scott-Kakures (SC))
- Phil 149: Agency and Action, (Scott-Kakures (SC), Yamada (CGU))
- Phil 168: The Rational and the Irrational, (Scott-Kakures (SC))
- Phil 169: Responsibility, Guilt, Person, (Scott-Kakures (SC))
- Phil 185N: Topics in Neurophilosophy, (Scott-Kakures (SC), Keeley (PZ))

Other courses in metaphysics, philosophy of mind and epistemology may be offered at the Colleges that can be added to this list. Please consult with Profs. Scott-Kakures or Keeley, if you'd like to know whether a given philosophy course might be counted towards neurophilosophy concentration.